Missionaries to New England

Sixth Edition – July 2026

Support: 16%

To our fellowlaborers in Christ,

Overview. As we have surpassed the first half of our first year of deputation, we have run into some bumps in the road – some of them literally – we have been at highs and lows of incoming support, dealt with sickness, and had a loss in the extended family. Above any negative portion we have had, however, we have been blessed exceeding abundantly above all that we could ask or think. God has protected us and used us, and we have been encouraged and strengthened in the churches we've been able to visit.

North Carolina. We were grateful, as always, to see Naomi's parents again as we stayed in North Carolina for a few weeks, and we were able to meet at several churches there and celebrate Joseph's first birthday with both sides of our family. Can you believe Joseph is already one year old? In case you are wondering, he is now wearing 2T clothes, and he is certainly the size of a two year old.

Minnesota. Then, we traveled to Minnesota, where we had a few meetings, and we got to see Naomi's older sister, who lives in Minneapolis with her husband and children. It was good for Naomi to see her sister, and we made use of the time with churches in the area, including the church that her sister and family are members of. The churches in North Carolina and Minnesota were exceptional blessings to us, and we have knit hearts with many of them. One of the most difficult parts of deputation has been leaving wonderful churches that we have come to love and appreciate. Thankfully, we are an holy nation, as God calls us in I Peter, and we will all be able to fellowship again soon!

Colorado Reunion. In May this year, Naomi's grandfather passed, and we missed the funeral because the family wanted everyone to prioritize the reunion we already had scheduled. The time was precious with the extended family, and we were able to revisit Platte Valley Baptist Church while we were there, as well.

Upcoming. We will be traveling back to our hometown in Tennessee, then making our way slowly through Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, and Massachusetts for several meetings in the coming month. Pray that we have good meetings and safe travels as we travel up the east coast. We plan to also use some of our time in New England by getting accustomed to Lowell, Massachusetts, getting footage of Lowell and the states of New England, and helping any churches we are able to in the area.

Support Update. Our support has slowed down a bit in the last two months, but we are seeing more churches promise support for the coming month, so we know that God is still working and that His will shall be done. We are excited and hopeful in what God is doing, and we look forward to just being a part of it as He works. Continue to pray for our safe travels, for our health, and for us to get the meetings that God would have us go to. Pray for Lowell, Massachusetts, as well, as there are many lost on their way to Hell – they must hear of their need of a Savior, and how shall they hear without a preacher?

In Christ,

Andrew, Naomi, and Joseph Adams
