Dear Praying Friends,

We had plans to be in Manila today and taking care of dental work. However, due to unexpected events, we are still in Guam as Patty is having medical procedures. We ask that you pray for her during this time for understanding and clarity and knowing to make the right decisions.

She is going through tests, and we will not know the results for several days. But this we do know, our God is good and cares for each of His own (Rom. 8:28).
