Christmas Edition

Kris & Rose Marie Blumer

This is our Christmas announcement; instead of merely saying, "Merry Christmas", and bearing gifts from afar, we are part of Bearing the "Good News" to all nations.
Matt. 24:14

We rejoice this time of year with grateful retrospection of the year, and an eternal Hope for tomorrow.

La Fe Iglesia Bautista grows with sound under-shepherding, The LMCS graduating class moves on to give way for the next class of students. Personal discipleship and ministry extensions bring blessings and challenges. But nothing improves the story of Christ's birth. Not the music, Not the lights, Not the unaccommodating inn, nor those that want you to think all they really want is to 'come and worship the new King'. Nothing improves the setting of Immanuel; the unusual birth, life or death and Resurrection for He is God with us, He is God for us, and He is God which works through us. "Glory to God in the highest." Rom. 11:36 Nothing can be improved except us. We can't make the story better, But God can. If you remember praying for Marc last year, he left our school and I have been praying that he would still be within reach. There is this student, David, who has such an opportunity. David is a wonderful Christian young man which God is using to be a great witness. —Three were baptized this month. —And there was an amazing outpouring of a love by a sister in Christ who opens her home for families to receive gifts and hear the gospel. —It is a Merry Christmas, Thank God!
