Psalm 78

...shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and His strength, and His wonderful works that He hath done..."

We are truly honored to 'show' the peoples of Peru the ministry of God through you. Every prayer update we send out reminds us of how our Hope is in God. Ps 72:12

PRAY
 EVANGELISTICALLY
 Dr. John Monroe

We read in the Psalms, where King David did his meditation in the night watches; reclining in his bed, reflecting on his day, and contemplating his future for the morrow (Psalm 63:6) . I began this letter for you in the night watches.

I recently opened an email which inadvertently added us to the mailing list of all the missionary prayer-letters our sending church receives. I woke :) to the awareness that pastors are inundated with news and requests all month long. It is a humbling realization that whatever I write has to be concise, and information useful to you. A few minutes after responding to the unintentional group-emailing, I received another email exclaiming, OOPS!... That, "overlook" added a blessing to our prayer life, so that I may be able to pray alongside with our fellow-laborers wherever they are and whatever they are facing; knowing that their needs are ours. With joy we cast our cares onto God for them, in mutual prayer. There was another email from brother Chris in VA Beach that opened his heart to God's use and direction. His recent conversation with me sounded all too familiar to the life of a missionary. We do not want to lose-sight of how you also are "troubled on every side; without— fightings, within— fears. Chris described the events, calling it, "Death by a thousand paper cuts", not uncommon to choice servants.

He decried, "...it just seemed like every day multiple small problems would crop up like there was a dark cloud following us around... This in itself was nothing unusual, life often has times like this, but it was my complaining about it that God was dealing with." They had done all the right things, prayed about it, spent time in God's word, and they would remind each other of God's provision. The best way to know how to pray for missionaries is to start seeing yourself as one. The Adversary cowers when we pray for our friends (Job 42:10). Thank you, friends and fellow-soldiers.

The provision through your sacrifice and 'labor of love, and patience of hope' passes through us and will be compounded by the intercession you cast up in Jesus name (3 John 7). The Apostle Paul also remarked that the Thessalonians were 'ensamples to all that believe'. Whether in the first century church, in Peru and South America, yea, in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad. Thank you for 'faith by your works' (James 2:18)

One previous LMCS student, Matias Brena, wrote during class:

"The persecution of Christians is a grave thing to do, and nobody being a target to persecution isn't living a fair life, but God gives his strongest battles to his best warriors, and I am sure that if your faith is strong enough to rebel against oppression, you are one of the strong warriors."

Matias is a Peruvian now living in Chile. He is an ambassador for Christ in a foreign country.

Nationally: An announcement from the president of Peru initially stated that, as of December 15, in all provinces of Peru, adults over the age of 18 must show proof of vaccination to enter closed spaces. They must carry a physical or virtual vaccination card. Shortly before the close of the school year a new announcement replaced the date for the 10th and included 12 year olds.

Praise: The church meets outdoors!

Pastor Tim Chapman used our home and wife to broadcast a Sermon on the Mount series to the Iglesia Gracia Bautista church-plant.

Pray for Victor Rosado's spiritual growth and victory over peer-pressure temptations.

Pray for the salvation of SEBASTIAN VILLANUEVA. He was a LMCS student in my Bible class 4 years ago. He called me up out of the blue, but it was obviously God speaking to his heart about his need to be saved.

New Pastor ordained on Dec 12th !!

Thanksgiving Dinner with a few of the dear Independent Baptist missionaries living near us!

Nov. 27-30 I drove a missionary-pastor over the Andes Mountains to the jungle village of San Ramón

My 2007 Hyundai did not do so well, but the Lord brought us back to Lima safely.

Pray for strength, safety and doors that are opening up!
