Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men!

These are the times where I love knowing I am in the will of God and where I can see God exceeding our expectations. It is true, there are times that stepping out by faith does not manifest immediate, or obvious results. However, that does not appear to be the case in Cerro Azul these last three months. The previous Update-Letter explained how Antonio Torres invited us to meet some of his family that lives in the coastal village of Cerro Azul. The family has been praying for a church body to form for many years. Knowing that there were believers already in Cerro Azul, I had no idea of the size of the need until I began walking up and down the streets, witnessing to a group of men who had been fishing all night and brought their nets up to their houses to mend. While I am witnessing and carrying on a conversation with three or four of them, another person may join the conversation, just from walking down the street and seeing me. (I kind of stand-out). Before long, people are coming out of their houses to ask me to come to their house and talk. One family explained how they stopped attending a M.M.M. church (Pentecostal). They realized that the pastor was a false teacher. (One of the clues was he was selling rice and staples that had been donated to give to the needy). Obviously, there are other doctrinal issues and questions they have, and I am going through the book of Acts with them. They have asked which book we will go through next; and, they keep asking when we are going to start the book of Romans! While we have seen some come to the Lord in Antioquia, the invitation to begin another work in Cerro Azul is equally, The Calling of the Lord. Last Wednesday, I learned of a family whose son was in prison and received Christ through a Prison Ministry. He told his mother, Rosa, he began praying for a church and pastor for Cerro Azul. Rosa told one of her neighbors that the Lord answered their son's prayer! That neighbor is building a four story apartment. They asked Rose Marie and I in to pray for her daughter, Milagros, and pray a dedication prayer on their house as it is being constructed. That, opened an invitation to use a prophet's chamber being added, and use a salon (room) to preach in when we need it. The word getting-out is, that I will preach anywhere when invited. Sometimes when I'm not invited too.

Thank You for the love you've shown by committing to prayer and financially sacrificing during a very difficult time in the USA. Our love and prayers follow you through each day.

Through these Prayer Letters and Updates, we are able to report to you so you can see how God uses the gifts and prayers that you send. That is why these letters are vital to your prayer time, and direct the praise upward to God for His wonderful, wonderful work. I have added additional pages you can print and pass out as Prayer Sheets.

Praise God !!! We received gifts specified to help us make the transition.

We are still in need of new monthly support. World Wide New Testament Baptist Missions provides information on our current support level and would be happy to answer your questions about what that level is as it changes.

Our visa renewals have been submitted on time for this year. Please pray that the paperwork finishes and no fines are levied against us.
