During the first 10 years of ministry we did not have any couples coming with any degree of regularity. But now, praise the Lord, we have several. Jose & Rosa Acosta have been growing in the Lord and becoming more faithful. Their three girls rarely ever miss a church service. Mikelar and Martxeli Mendia have come more in the last year than in all the previous years since they were saved. Edgardo and Mary Rosillo are from Peru and quite faithful to church. We have watched them grow and seen the Lord do some good things in their marriage this past year. One of our earnest prayers as we work with the church youth is that they build good marriages. The families here are a disaster and many of our young people come from broken homes.

What a joy it has been to have the Dodgens move up to join our ministry. Both Mike and Madelaine have jumped in with both feet and are busy as beavers in church ministry, evangelism, and Aierdi work. Madelaine has been over numerous times in the past few weeks to make visits with Mimi. Mike oversees our Friday Fellowship ministries at church and has put in many hours cleaning up and organizing around the Aierdi farmhouse. Nearly every week there is some kind of activity for the believers going on at the farmhouse. Inside and out, the facilities look better than ever! You can see them both at the top of the adjoining picture. Mike has the white grandfatherly beard! In the foreground Mimi is accompanying with the flute, along with one of her ten flute students.

Missionary friend Marvin Robertson taught our 19th intensive institute on February 21st on the theme THE NATIONS IN THE PLAN OF GOD. The attendance was 47 with representation from three sister churches in the region. Marvin did an excellent job and used the projector and powerpoint presentation very effectively. The institutes are a unique opportunity through which the Aierdi farmhouse facilities can continue to fulfill their purpose—that of aiding us all in the preaching of the Gospel and strengthening of the believers in our church-planting ministries. One very special blessing is to watch the fellowship between believers who, for the most part rarely get to see other Christians outside their congregation.
