Prayer Requests

- Safety while travelling
- Additional support
- The meetings that God desires for us

One of the greatest missionary examples we find in the New Testament is the Apostle Paul. An interesting feature of his ministry is that he almost never worked alone. He consistently worked with a team, made up of such men as Barnabas, Silas, and Timothy. In keeping with that pattern, it was a great blessing for us to spend part of the month of June with our ministry partners, Chris and Diana Stivers. These dear friends of ours are also preparing for the Cambodian mission field, and we treasured the chance to encourage one another and plan together.

Another highlight of the last month was Family Fellowship Week for our mission agency. This was a time of teaching, preaching, encouragement, and fellowship in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. One of the greatest privileges of deputation so far has been the way that God has spoken to us personally as He prepares us for the work He has for us in Cambodia. God has chosen to use us, and we are thankful that He continues to convict and change us.

Many of you know that our goal and prayer is to be in Cambodia by the end of 2013. Thanks to the Lord and the generosity of His people, we are continuing to draw closer to that goal. Our support is now above 30% after just over 3 months of full-time deputation. We are so grateful to God for His provision. July will see us in churches throughout the Northeast. We continue to covet your prayers for protection while travelling as well as opportunities to share the gospel with unsaved family members. Thank you for partnering with us in this ministry.

In Christ,

Matt and Nikki Brown
