Our Support Level

Once again we are in the midst of a “mission conference season.” It is our favorite season of the year! We enjoy being a part of churches that have a sincere desire to participate in the work of world evangelism.

The month of February brought us to our two home states - Georgia and Virginia. We are so privileged to be from areas that have such a great mission-minded community. While in Georgia, we had the opportunity to stay with a couple that has done some church planting in the past, as well as spend some time with a pastor and his family whose own children are on the mission field. Needless to say, we gleaned a lot of helpful insights on ministry from these friendly folks.

Spending the remainder of the month in Virginia allowed us to meet more of our church neighbors. The Lord has allowed us to be a part of three local mission conferences in just a matter of weeks. We’ve met those who have been involved in missions giving for a long time, as well as those who are just learning about it. One of these conferences was at a recent church plant from another local church, now doing its part to further the Gospel around the world. It is so exciting to see God’s plan in action! Both of us have had the opportunity to teach Sunday School, Children’s Church, and be a part of many question and answer times at each church. Matt also has been given the chance to preach and present our ministry in Cambodia.

God is answering prayers. He has allowed 2 more churches to partner with us in financial support as well as given us many more faithful prayer partners. We are also very thankful for the prayers for our vehicle. We’ve successfully hit the 200,000 mile mark and God is faithful to have kept us and our car running well. Thank you for your labor in the Lord.

For His Name,

Matt and Nikki Brown
