Our Support Level

There are few joys to compare with ministering to and among God's people. Through God's Spirit, we have a common place in Christ and a common purpose. We never forget that our ministry is one of partnership: first of all with our all-powerful Lord, then with our fellowlaborers and helpers. Truly it is honor for us to serve our Lord alongside of so many faithful Christians and churches.

It is our great joy to report that additional churches have voted to support us this month! The graph in the sidebar shows our current pledged support level, which is now rising above 80%. Cambodia is looking closer and closer!

We had some unique opportunities in our various church meetings this month. These included assembling Scriptures and preaching (via Skype) to soldiers deployed in Afghanistan. Additionally, we got to do some teaching, preaching, and soul-winning.

Amazing hospitality has been shown us every place we go. That said, after so much time spent in hotels, "prophet's chambers", and spare rooms, it is a blessing to have a place of our own for a little while. Thanks to one of our supporting pastors, we are able to stay in an RV for a couple months for the birth of little Joshua Matthew. For a couple of missionaries used to living out of a car, an RV is like a mansion! We are thankful for this place to stay as we wait for baby's arrival, which could come any day at this point. Thank you for your continued prayers.

Yours in Christ,

Matt and Nikki Brown
