Nikki's Notes

Beginning in the next prayer letter Nikki will have a Q & A section for all of those who have questions specifically for the missionary wife. You can email her ANY of your questions at our email address listed below.

Dear Supporters and Fellow-Laborers,

We were back in the full swing of things this past month. Our meetings began in Virginia, then North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, and Pennsylvania. We passed through a total of 11 different states. Once again we are thankful for the Lord's provision as we travel. Each meeting gave us the opportunity to share our burden and reach more people who committed to pray for the work God has called us to.

It is always interesting to see the different ways that churches manage their mission programs. This month, we met some dedicated mission directors – church members who devote their time to coordinating missionary speakers and looking through the prayer letters to keep the church informed. Many faithful pastors and secretaries do the same, and we are so thankful for that. Our relationship with churches and individuals that support us with prayer and finances is so important, and we appreciate those who keep the life-line of communication open.

As we begin to make preparation for leaving, we have many tasks that need to be accomplished. Moving overseas can be a challenge when everything you are taking must go in a suitcase. We covet your prayers for wisdom in this matter of packing. Any advice is appreciated from those who have done such moves. We can never thank you enough for your prayers and support. We hope that each of you feel comfortable enough to share your prayer request with us so that we can be praying specifically for your needs as well. Our God is so good and it is for His glory that we have the honor to serve Him.

Yours In Christ,

Matt and Nikki Brown
