Nikki's Notes

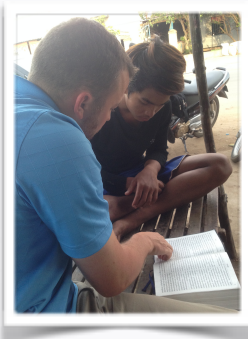

We continue to receive encouraging notes from those rejoicing with us about how the Lord choose to remove the cyst away from our unborn child. A follow up appointment showed even more clearly that the cyst is indeed gone. We also found out that this precious miracle from God is a boy! The doctor listed a few health concerns she still has for both the baby and myself and we certainly covet your prayers for those. The baby's growth continues to improve and is currently measuring for an early January due date. This boy has already been prayed for by so many people in so many different places, and as his mother, I wouldn't want it any other way. From the bottom of my heart, thank you!

Prayer Requests

- Health and safety
- Salvation of Nhup, Rattana and Jone
- Salvation of Nate and Mahp
- Health for Nikki and baby

Dear Praying Friends,

Something we can easily take for granted is Christian friendship and partnership in the work of the Lord. After a year of working "alone", we are very thankful to have Adam Wood and his family back in Kampong Cham. The Woods are the family that started Grace Baptist Church here, and it has already been a tremendous blessing to work alongside of them. The Lord has opened some great doors for witnessing and salvation Bible studies. Please pray for a young man named Mahp who has heard the gospel very clearly but says he isn't ready to make a decision on Jesus Christ yet.

Please pray also for a young man named Nate (pictured above) who has begun a salvation Bible study. Continue to pray that the Lord will give open doors of utterance, both with new people that we meet each week, as well as those who have already heard, but not yet trusted in Jesus Christ.

The Lord has really impressed upon us lately the power of prayer. As we have prayed specifically for certain people we are trying to reach for Christ, we have "just happened" to cross their paths, and had opportunities to witness to them again. We know that this is no coincidence, but is the mighty hand of God orchestrating His master plan. Thanks for your partnership in this aspect of the work here. We believe that God wants willing hands here to do His work, but without His hand at work, we are just spinning our wheels, at best. Please do not cease to pray for the work here. We long to see God's power revealed in a mighty way for His glory here in Cambodia!

For His Name's Sake,
