Nikki's Notes

If you've ever had to handle any business in a foreign country you may know how trying and tiring of a process it can be. For the past two months we've been going through the process of getting a passport for Judah. When dealing with provincial officials as well as translating important documents, things can get quite complicated. Obviously, it is important for us to have his passport in order for him to be an "official" American citizen and even have the rights to travel outside of Cambodia. We've been assured that if any case of emergency arises before receiving proper documentation, the American Embassy will be sure to get us out promptly. However, I would like to ask you to pray specifically for us to obtain all needed paperwork in order to submit the application for his passport. Lord willing, the beginning of April will be our next appointment at the embassy. Thank you for your prayers regarding this matter.

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

February was a busy month but we have much to praise the Lord for. First, we thank God for Srah, who called upon the Lord for salvation this past month! Please continue to keep her in special prayer as she sets out in her Christian life. Like so many, she has a lot of "baggage", but has shown a teachable spirit as we seek to disciple her.

Thanks to those who prayed for our work of renovating the new building. Many hours went into preparing our new meeting place, but by God's grace we were able to have it ready for services this past Sunday. We are already encouraged by the local response and excited to see how the Lord will use this move.

Please continue to pray for Waat. Because of unrepentant public sin in her life, she is currently under church discipline. We are praying that she will come to a point of true repentance and be reconciled with the Lord and the church.

At the beginning of last month, we moved the location of our kid's Bible club to the neighborhood of our colleagues, the Hancocks. 20-30 young people have been coming consistently each week as we teach from Creation to Christ. Please pray for the Lord's blessing on this ministry - that young people would be saved and families be reached.

May the Lord bless each one of you as you serve Him.

For His Name's Sake,

The Brown Family
