Nikki's Notes

Last month I asked specific prayer for obtaining Judah's passport. I'm thankful to announce we have recently been able to turn in completed paperwork and the official processing has begun. Lord willing, we should have his passport within the next month. There will still be different requirements regarding obtaining a visa for him that might make it necessary for us to step out of the country and back in, but those details should come along to us soon. Your continued prayers are appreciated.

Prayer Requests

- Spiritual growth of believers
- Salvation of Bunteoun & Riem, Meng Hong, Sak, Net, Meng Lang, Sokhawn
- Repentance & Reconciliation - Waat
- Dedication Event - April 7

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

A big highlight of this past month was moving into our new church location. We are thankful to the Lord for providing for the needed renovations as well as supplying a larger, more suitable meeting place. Already, several folks from our new neighborhood have visited the services or at least listened at the door. This Friday (April 7) we will be having a special dedication event and inviting many from the neighborhood. Please pray that the Lord will help us to build some new relationships and have opportunities for the Gospel through this event.

We recently began a salvation Bible study with a lady named Sokhawn. She has been involved with both the Mormons and Chinese spiritism in the past, but has been very open to our teaching. Please pray for her in a special way over these next few weeks, that she will understand and believe the Gospel.

Discipleship meetings with Srah have continued. She has been over all receptive to teaching, but still has some big steps to take in her walk with the Lord. Continue to pray that she will grow in Christ.

The Lord continues to bless the children's Bible club. A core group of about 15 young people have been coming faithfully and listening attentively. Last week, a loud party nearby made it almost impossible to hear the teaching, but the children still listened carefully to the story of the Crossing of the Red Sea as we continued in our Creation to Christ series. Please do pray that these precious young people would understand more and more about the true and living God.
