missionaries to CAMBODIA

Nikki's Notes

This past week we had to make a quick semi-last minute trip to Thailand. In a whirlwind of events, we were issued an exit visa with a 6-day expiration period. We quickly decided to drive the shortest route we could find to cross over an international border and come back into Cambodia. Unfortunately the roads aren't the greatest, but the Lord truly protected us and gave us safe travels. Once we arrived at the border, Judah and I went through the process of filling out the departure paperwork for Cambodia. Once that was completed, we simply walked across the border into Thailand where we filled out both the arrival and departure cards. When our passports were successfully stamped, we walked back into Cambodia and officially received Judah's visa. This process has proven to be somewhat taxing and we are thankful it is all behind us. We appreciate those who've been praying with us in this matter.

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

While pioneering missions work among an idolatrous people is certainly not easy, there are some special blessings we get to experience. One marvelous privilege we have here in Cambodia is the opportunity to introduce people to the Lord Jesus Christ for the first time. While witnessing to a young man recently, we told him of Christ's resurrection after 3 days in the tomb. "Really?" he responded with obvious surprise. The same response has been evident in our kid's program as well, as these children have heard for the very first time the account of Jesus' birth, life, and death. We will be teaching on the resurrection next week, so please be in prayer that God will open the eyes of understanding for these young people.

Open house event

Thanks to all who prayed for our special open house event last month. We had a good crowd of neighbors who came out as we explained the purpose of the church and dedicated the building to the Lord. Do pray that we will have wisdom in further cultivating these relationships.

Continue to pray for Sokhawn, who has expressed interest in the gospel. Business and local holidays have made it hard to study with her lately, so please pray that she will make time to seek the Lord. Sojin is an older lady who has been studying with us as well. So far she has grasped the truths of the gospel very clearly. Pray that she will not only understand, but repent of idolatry and dead works and believe the Gospel. Please pray also that the Lord will continually fill us with zeal for His work. We thank Him for all of you.
