Nikki's Notes

Thank you to all of those who took the time to pray for me while I was in a 5 week language class. The class was very intense, but it was exactly what I needed to boost me up another notch or two in the language. I am extremely thankful that the Lord gave me this special opportunity to study again and He also provided the strength needed to get through it. My kids were all counting down the days for mommy to finish school- haha! However, this has been like a shot in the arm for me and I'm ready to press forward in the ministry here. As a language/ ministry goal, I'm praying to be advanced enough to teach a kid's lesson in Khmer before we begin our first furlough in February. It is my heart's desire (as well as my husband's) to be as much involved in the work here as possible. God has given us a great task! Thank you for your prayers!

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

This last month has flown by! We are so thankful for this opportunity to work with Good News Baptist Church here in Phnom Penh, and the Lord has graciously allowed us to quickly form good relationships with the members of the church. Pray that we can be a blessing and a help to this church during these few months. We are splitting our time between here and Kampong Cham, as we continue to be involved with the work there as well. Please pray for us, as we have a very full schedule of ministry and travel, that the Lord will give strength and safety.

Furlough Plans

It's hard to believe that we have been in Cambodia for almost 4 years. We are so thankful for all that we have seen the Lord do during this time as He has made Cambodia our home. This upcoming year (2018) we are planning to take a furlough, returning to the States to spend some time with family and with the churches that have so faithfully stood behind us. At this point, we are planning to arrive in the US in mid to late February and be in country through the remainder of the year. We would love to be able to visit as many of our churches as possible during that time to share how God has blessed. If you would like to have us into your church during that time, please email me at brownstocambodia@gmail.com and we can schedule a meeting!

We are truly thankful to the Lord for His faithfulness, but also to so many of you who faithfully pray for and encourage us. God bless you!

For His Name's Sake,

The Brown Family
