Nikki's Notes

One of the ministries we were able to assist in while in Phnom Penh this past month was a village kids ministry. Every Saturday we would travel a good distance to help conduct a short bible study. The children at the bible club really took to our kids and enjoyed interacting with "the foreigners." From the first week they wanted to know each child's name. While they were able to say Julie and Judah's name easily, the name Joshua was quite difficult for them to pronounce. A group of those children eventually began calling him "John." We all got a good laugh out of this, except for Joshua, who spent a majority of his time trying to correct them. The language barriers here are many and the stories are countless!

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

It was with mixed feelings that we wrapped up our time with Good News Baptist Church in Phnom Penh at the end of last month. We will miss the dear folks that we spent these past months with, but are excited to get fully involved back in Kampong Cham, our home.

Last Service in Phnom Penh

We had been holding a salvation Bible study with a lady named Srey Own. She eventually decided not to continue studying with us, but a neighbor of hers who had been listening in on the lessons placed her trust in Christ! Her name is Srey Nieng, and she comes from a Muslim background. Please pray that she will grow in her faith, and that she will have wisdom in dealing with family pressures which are currently keeping her from church.

This month, we are planning to do some more concentrated evangelism in Pa-ow, where we currently have a weekly Bible study. Please pray in a special way for this effort, that God would grant fruit of souls saved, and that a church might be established in this needy place.

We are very excited to see so many who contacted us already about visiting on furlough. If you would like for us to spend time with you or your church next year, we have dates free from March through the end of the year. Just send us an email and we can set something up. We'd love to see as many of our faithful friends and supporters as possible during our short time in the US.

For His Name's Sake,
