Nikki's Notes

The past two months have been full of adventures for all of us, but I think even more so for our children. Even though the older two have been to America before, they hardly remember anything about it because they were so young. We've heard some of their funny questions and exclamations about America that I've listed below. I hope you enjoy these as much as we have.

"There are so many shiny cars in America!"

"Those things are so loud and scary!" (Pointing to the vents in the house.)

"Why does it take a thousand years to get the America?" (Said after only the 2nd hour of our 21 hour plane flight.)

"This market is so humongous!" (Walmart)

"Is this our hotel?" (The grocery store)

"Why is church so far away in America?"

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

The last couple months have been very full for us as we wrapped up our time in Kampong Cham, and began our furlough back here in the US. We thank the Lord for safe travels and for His provision every step of the way.

Before we left Cambodia, we had the joy to be involved in a baptismal service where 3 new Christians followed the Lord in baptism. The work there at Grace Baptist Church continues under the leadership of the Wood family, and we ask that you would continue to remember this congregation in your prayers.

Baptismal Service

As you might imagine, getting "set up" for furlough is quite an undertaking, with needs for a vehicle, housing, etc. We were shocked at how generously the Lord has used our wonderful church family and friends from all over to provide these needs for us. It has been a delight to already be in several churches that have faithfully supported us and prayed for us these past 4 years, and also to share our ministry in a new church. The next month will take us to North Carolina, Kentucky, and Florida as we report back to supporting churches, so please pray that the Lord would give us safety and strength on the road.

Our plan is to be here in the US for the remainder of 2018, so please let us know if you'd like to meet with us or have us visit your church. My new phone number is (757) 749-5658 or you can contact us by email at brownstocambodia@gmail.com.
