"Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rising again of many in Israel..." Luke 2:34

Through the eyes of prophecy, Simeon saw the polarizing effect that baby Jesus would make upon the world. All those who honestly come face to face with Jesus' perfect righteousness must "fall" as they realize their own wickedness and unworthiness. Yet in God's perfect plan, that terrible day of falling can also be the wonderful day of "rising again" for those who receive Christ's righteousness by faith and enter in the joy and victory of His life! By God's grace, we pray that we may see many more, in the US and in Cambodia, who will fall in conviction and sorrow for sin, and rise again in the power and holiness of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Little Turkeys at Thanksgiving

The Lord has richly blessed our last few months here in the US. We were able to be a part of some wonderful missions conferences, including our own home church's. Resources for some special needs have been provided in a remarkable manner, including recording equipment for radio ministry, funds for Bibles, funds for a vehicle, etc. A special treat was having an American Thanksgiving celebration with family. God has been so good to us, and we are excited to be able to enjoy Christmas in America as well, spending special time with our families.

We will still be traveling and ministering in a few more churches before Christmas, so please continue in your prayers for our ministry in that way. May the Lord bless you with much joy and thankfulness as you celebrate the birth of His Son and look towards the New Year!
