Nikki's Notes

We had the privilege of having Grandpa visit us for a few days before Christmas! He brought along several special cards, gifts, and treats from many of you back at home. We have been so blessed to have so many people in our lives who continue to keep up with our family, love and pray for us, and spoil us often. We are very undeserving of such friends and family and thank the Lord for each of you! We trust you all are beginning the new year looking forward to all the Lord has for you. God bless!

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

We hope that each of you had a wonderful time remembering our Savior's birth and looking forward to this new year. As we reflect upon the Lord's mercies that are new every morning (and every year!), we are excited to see how He will prove Himself in 2020. We hope and pray that the Lord will continue to grow us and mold us into the servants He needs us to be, and that He will bless His Word and build His church here in Cambodia.

Every weekday, we teach a small children's Bible club in our home. We were delighted to have a special emphasis on our Savior's birth on Christmas Day, and we gave out a small gift to the 20 or so kids that attended. Later in the evening, we were able to give out Christmas goodies and a small explanation of the meaning of Christmas to several of our immediate neighbors. Our neighbor across the street, who is a cowherd, was especially interested to hear that herders were the first to come and worship Jesus. Please pray with us for continued help from God in our witness to our neighbors, as well as to this entire community.
