Nikki's Notes

One of the first goals I asked the Lord to help me with this term was to have an opportunity to teach ladies. Last term I had the incredible opportunity to teach several lessons to many children and still have that opportunity here in our neighborhood. However, teaching adult ladies in a different language presents many new insecurities and fears. Because of the pandemic, I was asked by a veteran missionary here to make a short devotional video to be shared on their church's Facebook page. It was such a unique experience and was perfect for a first time lesson! I'm so thankful the Lord gave me this opportunity and while I still have a long ways to go in the language, that first jump is out of the way. Thank you for praying for our family!

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

Thanks to all who prayed for Grandpa "Tow" over the past several months. After a very difficult illness, he passed away last month. We are so thankful for his profession of faith just weeks before his death, and also for the opportunity to participate a little bit in his funeral. As a Cambodian with Chinese ancestry, his funeral was quite elaborate and lasted several days. Although much of it was animistic rituals, I had the opportunity to share the hope of salvation and the resurrection with a few family members. Please pray for continued open doors with this family.

Grandpa Tow's Grave

After many months of prayer and preparation, we were finally able to launch a radio program on a local station. The program is called "The Light of Life" and is currently running every weekend. Please pray that many will hear the gospel by this means, and that the Lord will use it in a mighty way. Pray also for the Lord's help for us as we record gospel messages for this program and also broadcast them via Facebook and Youtube.

While the toll of COVID-19 continues to be light here in Cambodia, many of the restrictions and concerns are still in place, which does affect some of our normal ministry activities. Please pray that the Lord will give us additional opportunities of gospel proclamation, and give us the wisdom to take advantage of them.
