Nikki's Notes

Recently we got to go back and visit some people we've taught in the past. Some of those kids are getting married and having their own children now! I was excited to hold Navy's newborn baby girl. Navy trusted Christ during our time in Kampong Cham. She often came to our house and spent hours with us, even asking if she could live with us because her home situation wasn't good. God has now blessed her with her own baby. She still confesses faith in Christ, but her family aren't believers. Please pray for Navy, her baby girl (Junie), and her family. We'd love to see this family come to the Lord!

Prayer Requests

- Spiritual growth of Christians
- Salvation for Nat, Meng Hong, Heng
- Evangelism opportunities
- "Light of Life" radio program

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

"Don't go anywhere without a purpose!" A young man gave me this advice while I was going door-to-door with tracts in his neighborhood. I was able to explain my purpose - to tell people the good news of Jesus Christ - and have now met with this man a couple of times for a salvation Bible study. His name is Meng Hong. Please pray that he will understand and accept the free gift of salvation.

Thanks to all who have been praying for Nat. He actually was away looking for work for over a month, but just recently got back in town. We have been able to reconnect and continue to pray for his salvation. Also be in a prayer for Heng, an unsaved young man who recently visited a church service. He seems to be open to the gospel and we hope to see him trust in Christ as well.

Please continue to pray for the growth of the church, both numerically and spiritually. Some of the young people in the church have asked to begin going out for evangelism each week, and this month we will be focusing on a nearby village called Trapeang Reang (Dry Pond). Easter is also coming up this month, and we will be holding a special service for that as well. The resurrection of Christ is a surprising truth to those who are accustomed to worshipping a dead god. Please pray that God will give us the grace and opportunities to glorify our risen Lord!
