Nikki's Notes

America has been a big new adventure for our kids. Seeing it all through their eyes has been very interesting to us. Comments like, "The water tastes really sweet in America," and "It's always so quiet outside in America," have given us a glimpse into their view of this country. It's exciting for them to meet all the new people at each new place we've visited. A funny episode recently occurred when our youngest two were sharing a new watch. I was putting it on Jojo's wrist (4 yr old) when he said, "Wow, Mommy, you are so so so great!" Without missing a beat, my 6 year old piped in, "But remember, Jojo, she's still a sinner." I love these little kiddos who always keep me humble! Thanks for your prayers.

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

We thank the Lord for getting us safely back to the US. Although we had an eventful trip with much sickness, God gave us the strength we needed and got us here. We've already covered many miles as we have the opportunity to update our faithful supporting churches around the country. What a joy it has been to reconnect with those who have been standing behind us with their support and prayers for all of these years. The Lord has also opened the door for us to be in some new churches who are also interested in being involved in the work in Cambodia, and we are very thankful for new partners!

Please continue to pray for Good News Baptist Church in Memot. Technology has enabled us to keep in touch, and we have been doing a weekly group prayer call over FB Messenger. We praise God for the faithful folks who continue to follow and serve the Lord. Please pray for the Hancock family as they take care of the preaching and teaching ministry in our absence. This missionary family is commuting almost 2 hours each way every Sunday to be a blessing to the church. Thanks to those who have been praying for Sawm. He has been attending faithfully and growing in his faith. He has been separated from his wife for some time, but wants to get back together with her and wants to get her in church so she can hear the gospel as well. Pray that God will do a mighty work in this family!
