Nikki's Notes

If you read our last prayer letter you'll remember me sharing about our neighbor boys that our kids led to the Lord on Easter Sunday. Sadly, two weeks later, their parents decided to separate. The mom took the boys to a different province about two hours away. Thankfully, before they left we were able to gift them a Bible and Joshua showed them how to read it. They were still so excited to be "Jesus believers" now. These boys have been friends with our kids since our early days in Memot. Would you please pray by some miracle they would return or that we could somehow connect them with a church close to them? It seems just like the work of the devil to rip this family apart like this. We know the Lord can restore all things and we've been praying much for them.

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

In October 2023, the Lord first brought us in contact with Khak, a man from a neighboring province who heard our Christian radio program and called in. Since then, we've been working with him and his family, who have all trusted Christ and now regularly make the hour and half trek each way to come to church. We've been burdened for quite some time to do more evangelism in that area. This past month, we were finally able to get governmental permissions and take a group from the church out every week to go door to door and have services at Khak's house. By God's grace, we were able to share the gospel with hundreds of people in his remote village and surrounding areas. We had several visitors to the services who expressed interest in Christ but haven't yet decided to believe. Please pray for three ladies in particular: Srey Mach, Chahn, and Tee.

Service in Snuol

In Memot, we have continued to work with Ngan and Doy and are delighted that Doy has recently professed faith in Christ and that both of these men are now going through discipleship. Another young man named Leang was brought to church by a coworker, and he has also trusted Christ! Please pray for all of these new believers to be encouraged and to follow through with the Lord.

For His Name's Sake,
The Brown Family
