MISSIONARY CHURCH PLANTERS GOING TO ENUMCLAW, WA

Dear Praying Friends,

The last few months have been a blur of meetings, memories, and motivation; In spite of all this, we promise to keep this update to a one page letter.

Meetings: October began another road-trip across the country, from Georgia to Washington State. This Washington trip was needful to begin making preparations for the move, as well as give us an opportunity to attend a church planting conference hosted in western Washington. We spent the first week of our trip in Enumclaw, getting reacquainted with our mission field, making new friends, and looking at houses. God ordained that we meet several people on this trip that we were able to minister to. Please pray that these relationships continue to grow!

God worked in a wonderful way in the church planting conference. Eight churches from the Pacific Northwest committed to partner with us through monthly financial support; additionally, a love offering was taken to help cover the cost of moving expenses. It was encouraging, and humbling, to us to have other churches from our area of the country partnering for the work of the Gospel. We look forward to returning soon to join in the labor of reaching Washington.

After returning from Washington State, our family traveled to several meetings in North Carolina and Maryland. This December we have been visiting and updating some of our supporting churches in Georgia, Florida, and Virginia with our progress and future plans.

Memories: After much preparation, we have put our current house on the market. We have lived in this house for about twelve years and, of course, we have many fond memories of this place. We are, however, excited to be obeying God's call on our lives and are one step closer to that goal. Please pray that God would work in this entire situation and His will is done with the sale price and the the timing of the sale of our current house, and our search for a home in Washington.

Motivation: I can still remember the night, while in a missions conference in Washington State, where God pricked me and my wife's heart about the great need for the Gospel in Enumclaw, and his calling us to return and serve him there. It was several years ago now, but that passion for souls in Enumclaw has not changed. Matthew 9:36 has been somewhat of a theme verse for me during deputation. It reads, "But when he (Jesus) saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd." My Lord and Savior, the one I have put my eternal trust in to pay for my sins, had a passion for the lost around him. He saw them fainting, scattered, and in suffering with the worst problems in life. The worst of all being their unbelief and rejection of His salvation. This is the passion that I hope to emulate for the mission field that we are called too.

Merry Christmas,
