March 2008

"My responsibility in my Christian life is to be involved where I am, in doing the will of God where He has put me, to learn the lessons He is teaching me. It is God's job to open doors of opportunity...An available heart will always find lots to do for the Lord." – Gary Inrig

Dear praying friends,

Have you ever considered what an amazing privilege it is to serve the Lord - realizing that God doesn't need any of us to accomplish His purposes, but He chooses to use us? What a responsibility – and what a thrill! There is nothing greater than following the path God has chosen for you! I love being a missionary – and I am loving deputation! It's where God has me, and there's no place else I'd rather be! Whether on our mission field at home or abroad, may we always be faithfully serving the One Who has saved us by His grace!

This past month has been busy, but good. I praise God for the many good meetings I was able to have and for the safety He provided during a very wintry month! My support stands at 28.9% and I rejoice in all God has provided. This March, Lord willing, brings many more meetings and further opportunities to serve. Many thanks to all of you who have been so faithfully praying for me! Thank you so much for the encouragement and blessing you have been!

Prayer Requests:

Please pray for continued safety in travel, for further scheduling of meetings, and for an increase in support.

Please pray also for the Morells and the Deliches over in Sweden – for the contacts they have made and for the church in the process of being planted there in Stockholm.

Also, please pray for me as I will be driving out to Arizona at the end of March for a month of meetings out west.

Thanks again for all your prayers! I trust that you will all have a great month in the service of the King!

For Christ Alone,
Melissa Carlson
