Praise to God

Look! The mountains tow'ring skyward
Offer praise to Christ on high.
Lifting up their peaks before Him,
"Thank you, Lord!" is what they cry.

All the valleys bow in worship,
Humbly awed by God's great love,
Bowing low to show their rev'ence
To the Father up above.

Listen to the gentle music
Of the streams; God's power they sing,
Softly lifting up their voices,
"Jesus Christ is King of kings!"

All of nature proves the glory
And the strength of God on high.
Should not also we proclaim it?
"Thank you, Lord!" must be our cry.

Prayer Requests/Praises

*I praise the Lord for a wonderful month of blessing and provision! I had the privilege of being involved in the ministries of several churches throughout WI, IL and KY. Again, I praise God for the safety He has provided throughout the many miles driven! I also rejoice in the falling gas prices. ☺ What a blessing that is!

*Please continue to pray for my coworkers over in Sweden. Pray for the contacts they have made and the ministry opportunities they are involved in.

*Please pray for my new pen pal in Sweden. She and I have spent several hours chatting over instant messaging throughout this past week. Please pray for continued witnessing opportunities there.

*Please continue to pray for my book coming out. I should be receiving the initial copies any day now! Please pray that it will be an encouragement to folks and that God would be glorified through it. I will let you know details as they are available.

*Also, please pray for me as I continue to work on my schedule for next year. The Lord has been gracious in His provision of meetings – please pray that I will be able to get the further meetings needed. So far for 2009 I have meetings scheduled in WI, IL, IN, IA, MN, PA, NY, WV, and MD.

Again, thanks for your faithfulness in prayer! Have a wonderful Thanksgiving – all year round! ☺

For Christ Alone,
