

January 2009

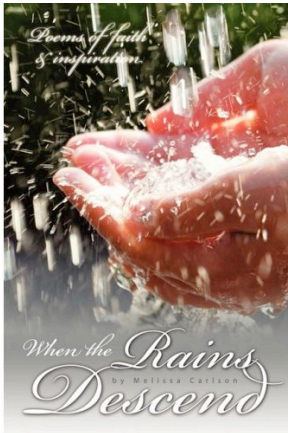

I trust everyone had a wonderful Christmas season! I certainly enjoyed a relaxing holiday with family and friends here in Wisconsin!

Now we're into yet another new year – can you believe it? Have you all adjusted to putting "2009" on things instead of "2008"? That always takes me some extra concentration! ☺

My travel schedule is somewhat light for this month, but come February things get busy again as I head to Minnesota. My schedule is pretty well filled from Feb-end of July. I am still working on my fall calendar, but it is starting to fill up as well. Please continue to pray that I will be able to get the meetings I need.

I also wanted to let you all know that my book has finally come in! Praise the Lord! It is available if anyone is interested in purchasing it. Details are below.

When the Rains Descend by Melissa Carlson

$7.00/book + *$2.50 shipping

All proceeds go toward my ministry in Sweden.

If anyone is interested in purchasing a book, please email me your order at reachingswedenforchrist@yahoo.com and I will email you an invoice.

The invoice will include a link in which you will be able to pay via my Pay Pal account. You can pay with Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover, Debit card, or through your own Pay Pal account.

Once payment is confirmed, your order will be shipped.

Feel free to contact me with any questions!

Thank you for your part in the ministry in Sweden!

*Shipping cost is for up to 3 books. For larger orders, please contact me and we can work out the shipping details.

Shipping cost does not apply to anyone living in Watertown, WI (or for members of Calvary Baptist Church in Watertown).

I also wanted to let you know that for this year I am going to start sending out updates every other month instead of every month as I have been doing it. This will greatly help me in the areas of cost and time! You will still be able to keep track of me regularly through my blog at swedeheart.blogspot.com. I appreciate your flexibility in this area!

Thank you so much for your faithful prayers, support and encouragement! May the Lord bless you in the new year!

For Christ Alone,
Melissa Carlson
Jer. 32:27

reachingswedenforchrist@yahoo.com
swedeheart.blogspot.com
920-342-7808

239 E. Spaulding St.
Watertown, WI 53098