Dear Praying Friends,

This past month has been quite a flurry of activity! I've had the opportunity to participate in a couple of different mission's conferences as well as serve in individual meetings.

I even had the chance to do some substitute teaching in a Christian school here in the Pittsburgh area! I also got to be "mom" for a week for my cousins – I enjoyed my time with the boys! They sure are great kids! Staying with them was definitely a good learning experience! ☺

I've also been able to spend some good time in language study this month – though I can't wait until I'll actually be able to practice it on real Swedes!

I have also been working on some more music. Please pray that it will be used for the honor and glory of God.

Thanks so much for your continued prayer and support! May God bless you in your service to Him!

For Christ Alone,
Melissa Carlson

Extra Stuff

As the weather gets nicer, people are out and about a lot more! This provides some great opportunities for soul-winning ☺ Please pray that I would continue to be able to have many chances to share the gospel with people I come in contact with as I travel on deputation!
