Dear Praying Friend,

December 28, 2019

God has been demonstrating His faithfulness in many ways over the course of the last several months. During the month of December, though I was only able to schedule one new meeting, God led several individuals and one church to take me on for financial support beginning in January. It has been a tremendous blessing to meet new people and for my faith to be tested and stretched.

Please pray for God's provision and wisdom as I continue with writing emails and calling churches. More meetings need to be scheduled for January-May. Right now, about 60% of my monthly needed support is promised, but not all has been received. Gaining new prayer supporters has also been heartening.

God unexpectedly gave me the opportunity to visit family for both Thanksgiving and Christmas. I am very grateful for those that have made it possible for me to stay and encourage them. My family would appreciate your prayers as many decisions are needing to be made in this time as they face several personal trials.

It was encouraging to see pictures of the Grenadian children singing a special Christmas song at Lifeline Independent Baptist Church... I'm so excited at what God is doing and that He has opened the door to prepare for spending my life in ministry there soon.

In January, I will be traveling from Pennsylvania to Mississippi, and then to Pensacola, Florida. Pray for safety as I drive and for my vehicle to continue to run smoothly during these long trips. Thank you for lifting up these requests, and those which are unspoken, before the Throne of Grace. I'd like to wish you and your church family a blessed new year as we begin 2020.

Sincerely,

Rebekah Childers
