Dear Praying Friend,

September 25, 2020

God has been showing me the significance of the ministry of deputation and imparting some valuable lessons which will help me on the mission field. Along with presenting my goals for serving in Grenada, it has been uplifting to hear about God working in other people's hearts. After my last recent meeting, a teen girl and several ladies each came up and shared how they related to my testimony and told of their desire to follow the Lord. Wherever we are, there is someone for us to reach and encourage.

As mentioned in my previous letter, Grenada is still not open for US travel because of Covid-19 restrictions currently in place. Though waiting is difficult, God always has a plan. I'm overjoyed to see that He has directed a church in Florida to begin supporting me financially! An individual raised their support level and a company even plans to match some of their giving. My monthly financial support level still needs to be higher in order to depart for Grenada, but it is getting so much closer. I love the hymn that says, "Little is much when God is in it." Along with financial needs, my desire is to many individuals to commit to becoming "prayer supporters" and praying regularly for the ministry in Grenada and people there. Please pray for safety traveling and my health to continue to improve. Thank you for your faithfulness. We serve a big God!

Sincerely,

Rebekah Childers
