Updates From the Road

Dear praying churches and friends,

Thank you for prayers and support! The month of April was a good month, we spent time in Oklahoma, Missouri and Tennessee. We have enjoyed the spring time weather, getting outside with the boys and watching them explore and admire God's creation. Our children can teach us so much especially to appreciate the small details of God's handiwork.

Over Resurrection Sunday, the family and I were able to visit my younger sister, Megan, who is in her last semester of Bible College. It was encouragement to us and the boys to visit, and she blessed us with letting my wife and I have a date night out. We had a great meeting in Missouri and while there I was able to present and preach. On Saturday, Sabrina was able to attend the church's woman's fellowship. This was the church's first woman's meeting in a year and Sabrina was able to give a brief testimony before another missionary wife from Romania came to speak. In the evening service we got to meet a visitor to the church that was a foreign exchange student from Italy! It was great getting to meet her and speaking to her that evening. We found a kind and encouraging church in Tennessee for a drop-in and the Pastor gave me the opportunity to present and preach that evening.

The Lord has been faithful and we enjoy serving Him while on deputation. Though the road seems long (literally) we know deputation is a learning process and God is teaching us much. Please pray for the meetings we have coming up, the health of our family, and for safety on the road. As always keep the people of Italy and the missionaries there in your prayers.

Thank you for your encouragement, prayers and support!

In Christ,
Trevor Deneau
