Updates From the Road

Dear praying churches and friends,

Thank you for your faithfulness in financial and prayer support! This past month has been busy and the Lord has provided in every way possible. A special thank you for those who prayed for Felix in our last prayer letter, he made a good recovery as did Emrys, Theo and myself. Since our last update we have been taken on for support by another church.

We have been in Kentucky majority of the month with meetings and a few mission conferences. Our hearts have been encouraged by the fellowship! While in a Sunday evening Q&A, Trevor was asked how God had burdened his heart for the country of Italy. In giving his answer, he spoke of song that God used the lyrics to confirm his calling "How Will They Hear?". Little did we know (but God knew) that the man who asked that question was the one who penned that song! The Lord let us be in that church for a reason, not only to share our burden of Italy, but to show us an example of faithfulness. We never thought we would get to meet the song writer and personally thank him for his faithfulness in serving God. God's timing sure is amazing!

Here shortly we will go from Kentucky to North Carolina and off to Michigan for the month of October. Praise the Lord our calendar is filling up and October is fully booked! We have found someone who may be able to do some Italian language lessons with us via Zoom, would you please pray that this would be scheduled and that it would be beneficial in helping us learn a little bit of the basics. Pray that we would have safety in travel, for our continued health and that we will be able to reach our field of Italy soon. Thank you for praying for us; we know it's you going before our Heavenly Father that helps keep us going and encouraged through deputation.

In Christ,
Trevor Deneau
