Eventful Fall

As we entered the fall season, we became more busy. We had a few events and joined other ones.

Labor Day Fellowship

For Labor Day weekend, we had a bbq after church was done. Many people brought food and we had several visitors. We had about thirty people come over, including three families from Ukraine. It was one of our largest events to date.

One Saved!

During our monthly ladies fellowship in September, my wife was able to lead one young lady to the Lord! As Colleen was teaching, there was a discussion about whether everyone is born a child of God. She explained and gave out verses about how we're born as children of Satan, and become the adopted children of God through Jesus Christ. The young lady, named Shami, spoke with my wife afterwards about how she doesn't want to continue being one of Satan's children. They were able to speak privately and at the end, she accepted

Jesus! She is a friend of one of our hearing teens, whose brothers are deaf. She has not been able to come to church much since. Please pray for her to grow spiritually and for us to somehow become acquainted with her again.

Deaf/Coda Youth Rally.

Just like last year, we were able to host a youth rally for deaf and CODA (children of deaf adults) children and teens. We had about 20 youths come. Our guest speaker was J.T. Gorham, a deaf youth evangelist. Although no one made a decision to become saved, many unsaved attended. Pray that God will work in their hearts.

Deaf Baptist Ladies Retreat

DBLR (Deaf Baptist Ladies Retreat) is an annual meeting for deaf ladies but they host it in a different state each year. This time, it was in Lancaster, PA, about an hour away from Philly! Several of our ladies attended, and my wife was one of the speakers. During this time, she had the opportunity to explain the gospel when one of our teen girls called her. Pray for her to truly understand what it means to be saved.

Deaf Bonfire

Our church went to Solid Rock Baptist Church in New Jersey, about an hour away, where they held a deaf bonfire. We brought about fifteen people from our church in a borrowed van. We all truly enjoyed it.

Birthday Party

Towards the end of October, many teens from my youth ministry insisted that I have a birthday party. On Halloween, which is my birthday, many of them came. It was heartwarming to see them show their affection towards me, and some of them gave me gifts.

Sermons and Sunday School

During this time I was able to preach more about the life of Christ, the different things He said and did during His ministry. For Sunday school, I taught about the life of Job, and have just begun teaching about Abraham. Several of our people were going through personal situations and they were able to see God's work in their lives as they listened about Job.

Prayer Requests

- More deaf souls in and around Philly to become saved.
- For us as we help them grow spiritually.

(Two of our men Jay, and Arnando, who come to church via bike and scooter!)
