A Full Summer

This summer was quite busy, we saw new people who come to church and to some of our events.

July 4th

On the first Sunday of July we had our July 4th fellowship at my home after church. We had some unsaved people come and join us. Please pray for them to become saved as we share the gospel with them.

Baptism

One young lady from our church came up to me and asked to be baptized. She professed Christ the year before and finally made the decision to become baptized. Her testimony was a big encouragement for others to become baptized. Please pray for her to grow in the Lord.

Sunday School

During this time, I taught about baptism for a couple of months. We had a very thorough study, there were many good questions and long discussions. However, we still have a good number of people who refuse to become baptized or keep on coming up with excuses. Please pray that God will work in their hearts to obey.

A soul winning visit

I heard about a deaf man in Philadelphia who was just diagnosed with stage 4 cancer. A friend of his brought me to his house. Upon arrival, he was sleeping so we spoke with his family for a bit. When he awoke and talked with us, his first words were “I don’t want to die.” As he spoke about his medical condition for a few minutes, a nurse from the hospital came for a routine check, so we waited till he was done. After the nurse left, he was ready to go back to sleep again. I left him with two tracts and asked him to read them. He let us pray with him before leaving. We tried to get in touch again afterwards but it seemed that his condition worsened really fast. It was tough as we went to his funeral. Sometimes it’s very difficult not to beat yourself up in such situations, wondering if there was anything else that have been done.

Prayer Requests

- For our congregation to keep on growing in the Lord.
- For more deaf people in Philadelphia to become saved.
- For us to have wisdom in teaching them His word.
