

December 2013

Dear Praying Friends,

In November, we had the opportunity to minister in five churches in North Carolina, Virginia, and Pennsylvania. Three of these churches and their ministries were very influential in Stephanie's life from childhood to adulthood. We enjoyed seeing the pastors and many church members who are still faithfully serving the Lord. At the end of the month, we were grateful for the few days to spend Thanksgiving with our family and friends and remember God's grace and mercy on our lives. In December, we finished our year of meetings in North Carolina at the very first mission conference of a faithful church and ministry in Kernersville. God has used all of these churches to not only minister to us physically, but also spiritually. We are thankful for five more promised supporters during the past few weeks.

As we approach the time when we celebrate Christ's birth, we are so thankful that He laid aside the glories of Heaven to come and dwell among men as our Emmanuel. We trust that you will have a blessed Christmas, and we pray that this coming year of 2014 will be the greatest year of outreach and blessing for your ministries to date.

Merry Christmas,
The Germano Family
