Dear Praying Friends,

November/December 2017

Isaiah 9:6 says, “For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.” He is truly our Wonderful Savior!

We have concluded another year and begun anew. We were very busy with the closing of 2017 in our different ministries around Christmas. We enjoyed a visit from Tim’s parents as well as sharing in the ministry with them. Also, we were able to host our first group on the field from Calvary Baptist Church in Smithfield, VA. We are very grateful for their help in some of the different outreach opportunities. We held our annual Christmas service on December 17, and it was exciting to see a family we met come to church not only that day but also the following Sunday. We hosted many national pastors who have been trained in the seminary for a Christmas banquet. Praise the Lord for a time to minister to these faithful servants with gifts and food boxes. The next Sunday, we held a special activity for the bus children with many in attendance. The following week, we traveled to La Romana to do outreach with one of the pastors from the seminary and his church in a sugarcane village. The next day, we visited a local boy’s orphanage and ministered to them in song, a Bible message, and Christmas gifts. We always look forward to this time of year as we have the opportunity to not only share and help in these different outreaches, but also to remind others or introduce them to the Greatest Gift to mankind, our Emmanuel Jesus Christ.

We would like to say a special thank you to all of those who have faithfully supported and prayed for us during 2017. We cannot do this work apart from the Lord and the faithful support of His saints. We are looking forward to a new year and more opportunities to reach others with the gospel and disciple them in the Word of God.

Happy New Year,

The Germano Family
