Dear Praying Friends,

Matthew 11:29-30 says, "Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." Praise the Lord for His yoke that is easy and the rest that He offers!

We marched headlong into the school year these past two months. We are thankful again for the opportunity to preach and minister to these students. Following a number of days sharing the gospel, Stephanie talked to one of her students after class, and he trusted in Christ as his Savior! Praise the Lord for the power of the gospel. Please continue to pray as the Lord has opened some doors with students in each of our classes. Recently, Tim filled in for a fellow missionary on a short furlough during some of his Sunday evening services, and he preached the thirty-ninth anniversary service for another one of the churches in the capitol. Praise the Lord for decisions that were made as well as for those who said that they accepted Christ as Savior! We are always excited to see what God is doing in the Dominican Republic in the ministry here as well as in other churches who are faithfully standing in the gap and preaching the truth of the gospel! We also were able to do various outreaches with a few of Stephanie's friends who came to help us with church ministries as well as trips to a local orphanage and to a sugarcane village in La Romana.

Our furlough schedule is filling in and coming together. Please pray that we would be able to visit all of our supporting churches as well as for open doors to present the work in new churches in order to prepare for our move to plant a church in Barahona in our second term. Pray also as we have had a number of issues with our car over the past few months that we would be able to sort out the different problems and continue using it until our furlough next May.

Serving Him,
