Dear Praying Friends:

“There is no limit to what can be done for Christ if it does not matter who gets the credit.” I am not sure whom I heard say this but I am sure they will not mind not getting the credit. The focus of our ministry, whatever it is that the Lord allows us to do for Him, should be to glorify God. Often though, we want men to pat us on the back and tell us how good we are. Encouragement is good, but when our desire for approval leads to jealousy and envy of others, then we must repent and redirect our focus. May the Lord help us not to care who else gets the credit but Him.

The past month has been a busy and exciting time at Grace Baptist Church. Besides conducting the regular church services, Kelly has had opportunities to teach four weekly Religious Education classes in the public schools. Many of these children know very little if anything about Christ. For many of their families, their gods are sport and leisure. Please pray that God will open many doors of opportunity through this outreach.

We have had several visitors come along to services. One lady has been coming regularly to the Sunday morning services. Please pray that the Lord will continue to grow our church both numerically and in maturity. Christ’s great burden was to reach people. That is also our desire at Grace.

Thank you for being our friends, for praying for us, and for supporting us financially. May the Lord grant you opportunities to share the gospel with those around you this week.

In Christ,

Kelly, Becca, and Clarisse Gilliam
