Dear Praying Friends:

“Content, yet not content” This description seems confusing and contradictory, but when applied to the Christian life makes perfect sense. God’s children are to be content with what they have (I Timothy 6:8) as well as with their circumstances (Philippians 4:11). But the Christian is never to be content with his own attainment of Christ likeness (Philippians 3:10-11). Paul encouraged Timothy to ever keep increasing in godliness (I Timothy 6:6). J. Mackintosh summed it up well when he wrote: “It is right to be content with what we have, never with what we are.”

This past month has been filled with anticipation to see what the Lord was going to do next. The Lord has allowed several of the young people that were attending youth group to either move away or just drop off from coming. At the same time, the Lord has brought a couple of families to the church whose children are keen to attend youth group. The Lord has also brought several unsaved people to church as well. It has been great to see the things God has done and is doing. The wonderful thing is the fact that He is the One doing it!

The next few weeks will be very busy. Please pray for the youth camps coming up during school holidays. We have several young people who need to give their lives to Christ in salvation. Please pray that they would have the desire to go to camp. Please pray also for those who already know Christ that they would lead surrendered lives to His leadership.

Praise the Lord for the opportunity and need to have our first baptismal service. Please pray for these young people that they would be strong witnesses at school and at work.

Please also continue to pray for our visa needs. Work is underway to apply. Please pray that the process will go smoothly and that the Lord’s will be done.

Thank you for your faithful giving and prayers.

Sincerely,

Kelly, Becca and Clarisse Gilliam
