Dear Praying Friends,

"Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15)

Sometimes when reading and applying this verse to our lives, we tend to forget that we are to share the gospel in our town, our neighborhood, and our own workplaces. We are missionaries right where we are now. The Lord has graciously opened several doors of witness this month. He has brought along a family whose children attended one of our Bible Clubs. This family has come for several Sundays now and the mother said that her husband was unsaved. Please pray that the Lord will continue to open doors to minister to this family.

We also met an elderly couple while shopping. The husband was from the southern United States. The couple showed sincere interest in coming along to church. Please pray that the Lord will continue to fan that spark of interest in them.

The Lord has brought along new people to youth groups and has in other every-day circumstances opened up doors to speak to folks about the Lord. Many had heard of the our church and were glad to find out more about us.

Please pray for us as we make plans to be in the States from the end of November to the beginning of February. Please pray that I will be able to find the right speakers while we are away. Please pray that we would be able to get Bryce's visa without too many more complications. Please also pray that the Lord will give us wisdom as we prepare our furlough schedule. Also pray that we will be able to visit several churches and get some rest as well.

Thank you for praying for us and for giving to support our work here. Our church folk constantly pray for you as well.

Love,

Kelly, Becca, Reese and Bryce
