Dear Praying Friends,

“Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.” (Jeremiah 33:3) It’s certain that God knows a lot of things that we don’t know. One of those things is how best to answer our prayers in the best way using the best means possible. We ask you to call upon the Lord with us concerning our Religious Education classes (RE’s) in the public schools. According to new legislation coming into effect as of July, each child will have to have written permission from parents to attend RE’s . Right now, each child attends unless they have a note of permission not to attend. Although several kids would not attend if their parents sent a note, most do because most parents do not want to have to bother with sending a note to school. We understand the Lord has known about this forever, but please pray that either the law will be changed, which is possible, or that the parents will want their children in RE’s enough to send a note back to school. Please help us pray.

We are finally back in the swing of things now. We are caught up in most of the things we got behind on while in the States, and are trying to get involved with more outreach opportunities. Along with special witnessing opportunities the church has sponsored, Becca and I are trying to get involved in community activities so that we can meet more people. Sports seem to be a good way to meet people. Although I’m getting a little older (no wise cracks please!) I am able to play sports well enough to be competitive. Please pray that we stay safe and have many witnessing opportunities.

Finally, Please pray for several people I have met over the last few weeks who are struggling with confusion and fear. “God is not the author of confusion,” nor does He desire His children to be fearful (except for reverence for Him.) Please pray that the Lord will give me wisdom as I speak with them.

Thank you for praying for us and for giving as you do. We pray that you will have many witnessing opportunities as well.

Love,
The Gilliams
