November 2015 News

Dear Friends and Family,

O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever (Psalm 136:1). Australia does not have an official day of Thanksgiving as the US and Canada have. But that does not mean we do not have much for which to be thankful. Two weeks ago, a young man, who had only been attending youth group, began attending our Sunday morning service with his mother. They were back the following week! Our building loan amount is steadily dropping (we owe about $260,000). We have had other visitors at church who have attended several services. We also had a continuous cricket match in which several unsaved and unchurched children attended (picture below). For all these things and more I say, "Thank you Lord!"

Please pray for our youth groups and religious education classes as they finish up soon for the year. Thank you for being an important part of this ministry. We are grateful for your prayers and gracious support.

Love,

- Kelly, Becca, Clarisse and Bryce
