Dear Friends and Family,

June 2020 News

“Understandest thou what thou readest?” was the question Phillip asked the Ethiopian Eunuch. He then explained the gospel to the Eunuch using the Book of Isaiah. Bible studies are excellent ways to introduce the gospel to people who do not know about Jesus. Several opportunities to do one-on-one Bible studies with unsaved people in our community have opened up during the pandemic. Please pray for these opportunities. Many other ministries have been halted because of the pandemic. Locally, we have not had a new case of Covid 19 for over a month now. We hope to be having somewhat regular services by the middle of July. We are thankful for the technology and ability to do some online services but look forward to having services together soon.

Please pray:

- *For wisdom for our government leaders as to the best path forward as the number of cases of Covid 19 decreases.
- *For the salvation of an unsaved woman who is doing a Bible study with one of our church ladies.
- *For the family of a woman near the church who fatally overdosed.
- *For the bread ministry to be an effective outreach during this financially trying time.
- *For church activities as we return to more normal services in July.
- *For continued outreach during this difficult time to both saved and unsaved people in our community.

Bryce turned 15 in early June,

Clarisse turned 18 in May.

Stay in the word and stay safe. Thank you for your prayers, concern, and financial support.

Love,

Kelly, Becca, Clarisse & Bryce Gilliam
