June 2023 News

Dear Friends and Family,

One of the topics I speak on in religious instruction (RI) classes is prayer. During that lesson, I always tell of a personal experience of mine when I was young (in grade 11). I tell them how I had to be at school, due to various practices, very late one day and had forgotten to bring food or money to get food. After my first practice, I was starving, and my belly was roaring. Between practices, I went to the auditorium and waited for the next practice to start. I began looking for a quarter to buy something from a vending machine (I realize things have gone up now). Anyway, I looked in the entrance way and could not find any money. So, I prayed to find a quarter. After the prayer, I looked in the exact same area I had looked before and found a quarter this time. Praise the Lord! When I told that story to the RI classes, someone, in all but one of the classes, asked if the story was really true or said something like, "Do other people actually believe you when you tell that story." I was filled with disbelief at their unbelief! Keep praying!

With our love and prayers,

Kelly, Becca, Clarisse and Bryce Gilliam
