

...nevertheless not my will; but thine be done. Luke 22:42

April 2004

Dear praying friends,

Greetings in the name of our risen Lord Jesus Christ from Mauritius. I pray that this letter finds you and yours as submissive as was our Lord to the will of the Loving heavenly Father. His submission brought to all of mankind the greatest blessing- salvation . There ,is no telling as to the extent of our influence, if only we bow to the willingness to be Christ-like in our submission, obedience and service.

Our family is doing fine. Both, my wife and I, are feeling the weight of our age. We are thankful to the Lord for renewed grace and courage as the load of work seems to increase. But we are glad to report that the Lord is praised through the testimony of our Baptist churches. Our children are heavily involved in the work of the Lord. Our joy as parents is tremendous as we see our children walking in the Truth. Keep bearing our Pascal up in prayer as he finishes his first year at Tennessee Temple University. He has a great job in managing "A's" in his courses and a 29 hours work load. But, this is what he writes: " Do not worry for me. I am fine. God will take care of me. I hope this is a great source of comfort for you because it is for me."

Please pray for Gene and Lee Livingston as they have expressed the desire to visit us here and be of service to the Lord. They are more than just good friends; In my heart, I consider them as my spiritual parents. Pray that the three months that they are here will be a time of refreshing for us and of blessing and revival to the Christians community.

We are always so grateful for your faithfulness to the Lord in supporting us both financially and prayerfully. We count it a joy to have this partnership with you over the years. I wish to God that some of you could come and see some of the wonderful changes that the Lord of glory is operating in the lives of mauritians. It is also true that many are the hundreds who will break your hearts in their obstinate ways. The worst are those who go back to the old ways that they once have renounced.

At this special time of celebration, we wish that each of you will embrace the reality that the Living Lord wants to daily encounter you. May God cause you to be ever submissive to His will.

Your Missionaries,

Guy and Marilyne Grenade.
