

Herein is Love...God sent His son... 1Jn. 4:10.

November- December 2010

Dear Praying Friends,

We greet you in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ – the final and full demonstration of God's wonderful love for us. Beloved, we are so appreciative of your faithfulness to the Lord in the support of His work here in Mauritius. From our hearts, "thank you".

Our family, although separated, has the conviction that we are at the place of God's choice for us. Tim and Daisy are happily serving in the music ministry of their church. Pascal and Becky have moved to Chattanooga: they are busy serving the Lord and the local churches that they visit in the context of deputation. Do pray that they will enrich and bless the churches as they share about their ministry in Mauritius. Both Lionel (Crown College) and Hilary (BJU) are confident that The Lord is at work in their lives. Pray for them as this time of the year can be so full of the homesickness bug.

As we move into the New Year, there are some prayer requests that we wish to share with you.

1. That the Lord, by all means to be glorified in our lives and ministry.
2. The Serrets family, as they make the move from Australia around April 2011.
3. Marilyne's eye problem. There was a slight change at her last appointment, pray that the healing may be complete...
4. That the churches, Revelation Baptist and Faith Baptist, will be constituted in 2011.
5. Work on a new church plant in Quatres Bornes.

Dear praying friends, the heading of this letter brings us back to the fundamental of our faith and the unwavering truth of the Christmas message. In his first epistle, the Apostle lingers on the outcome of this great truth. God sent His son so that:

1. The broken fellowship can be restored and rejoiced in. 1Jn.1:3
2. The lost joy can be revived and replenished. 1Jn. 1:4
3. The overcoming sin problem can be resisted and renounced. 1Jn2:1.
4. The subtle deception may be recognized and rejected 1Jn 2:26
5. The so great salvation can be revealed and received personally. 1Jn.

As we go about this time of nativity, may the Lord impress on our hearts and mind that Christmas is all about the Work of God in our lives, and that we believe on His Son Whom He has sent.

May you all have a Christ-filled Christmas and a Spirit filled year 2011, in the service of our God and Father.
