

...He knoweth them that trust in him.Nah.1:7b

Dear Praying Friends,

July 2017

We greet you in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Nahum penned these words in a time of impending judgment and harsh pronouncement of messages of doom towards a nation who had forgotten God. One hundred years earlier, the Lord sent Jonah to them with the message of repent or perish and they chose to turn to God. It is not amazing that in a book that is full of message of judgment that the Lord reassures that He knows every one that has faith to find in Him a good God who a stronghold in times of trouble.

What was true then for those who exercised faith in the goodness of God is also true today to those who in obedience submit themselves to the Lordship of Christ. Rejoice with us for the seven that were baptized recently: Therese, Ben, Nadine, Gloria, Luckoo, Mylene and Manouchka. They all testified that they have found rest in the faithful assurance of the stronghold of divine grace in Christ. Remember to pray for these to endure in the face of troubles.

We are looking forward to be in the States mid-August to late December this year with three aims in mind. First, we want to spend some time with our latest granddaughter, EVANGELINE LILLIAN, born to Lionel and Grace on July 17th. Then, we want to have a time of thanksgiving in our sending church, the Calvary Baptist Church, for the 40th anniversary of ordination to the ministry. Thirdly, we want to visit all of our supporting friends and churches. Some of you have been partnering with us as many as 40 years. We are so grateful to the Lord.

Please pray:

- For safe travels to the States and to the different churches.
- The two elders of our church as they continue to lead the work of the ministry in our absence.
- For the Lord's provision while we are in the States. We claim again here the promise of Ebenezer - hitherto the Lord has blessed us and we add, bountifully.
- That we will be an encouragement to pastors and churches that we visit.

May you all find in the goodness of God faith to trust Him in all circumstances of a life, and the assurance that He is a stronghold in times of troubles.

Your missionaries,

Guy and Marilyne Grenade
