

Of His fullness, we have all received... John 1:16
March 2024.

Dear Praying friends,

Greetings from Mauritius in the name of our Risen Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

I stand amazed at the verse that heads this letter. I felt that all I can do in front of such fullness is to bow down and worship at the feet of my Lord and Saviour. No word seems appropriate to describe the amazing glory of the Lord. A holy reverent hush, filled with awe and thankfulness, seems to be the only appropriate response to this fullness that is made available to us - undeserving sinners. There are no words to qualify any horrifying slackness on our part in receiving from this glorious fullness of grace upon grace. May none of us be found lacking when such fullness is within our reach. Dear praying friends, As we reflect on the resurrection, may our hearts be full with eternal Hallelujahs to Jesus Christ who is able to graciously supply our every need.

Religious fervor is not an uncommon thing in Mauritius. It is heard on loud speakers blasting out the name of a god that promotes violence. It is smelt as burning incenses to gods and goddesses that have ears, eyes and hands but are totally insensitive to people's needs. It can be felt as permeating heaviness in the necromancy of spiritism and witchcraft. Regardless of these strong oppositions, the gospel is being preached. In this respect, we would have you to pray for a young lady, Harshi R, who has been faithfully listening to our broadcast on Facebook. She got to a point, when she determined in her heart to come to church. She is facing opposition from her parents. But, she testified to me that she will not be unfaithful to her new found Lord of whose fullness she has received.

Pray for Dev B. and family. He came knocking on my door pleading prayer for his young son who was struggling with depression. He had heard me preached at a funeral, and he felt that I could point him to the healing streams that flow from the fullness of the Lord. Christ was found not to be a disappointment. Pray that their many family struggles will not have them deviate from the Lord.

Keep praying for our church as we are not quite settled in moving into a new location yet. We still have a problem of space. We need a bigger building and we are trusting the Lord to lead us to the right place. Praise God for all the current ministries that are going on. Our children's ministry, WOW club, is bearing its fruit. Some of the children who used to walk around are settling in the faith. We rejoice to see their growing desire to be used of the Lord in presenting special items in church. Keep praying for our pastors; Pascal and Gilbert in their ministry at Victory Baptist Church.

Our health is so so. Marilyne is doing well. She went for a check up and blood works and we are thankful that there are no major issues. She has a lingering pain and discomfort in her right ankle. Pray for her as she travels to the States to assist our children, Lionel and Grace, with their fourth child due this spring. As for me, I will be holding the fort on this side of the world busy with ministry and the grand children.

Dear praying friends, thank you for taking time to write and encouraging us to keep on shining. Thank you for your faithfulness to the Lord in the prayerful and financial support. May you receive grace upon grace from the fullness of our living Lord. May the Lord bless you with a joyful Resurrection Sunday!

Your missionaries,

Guy and Marilyne Grenade.
