Ministering to the military in Germany

Dear Praying Churches and Families

October 2010

Grüß Gott! (Hello)

The past few months have been very busy. Thank you for your faithful prayers and support.

June - Pastor and Mrs. Radank went to the States for a bit of furlough and to participate in their son Bob's ordination. We also had the Crown College singing group come to the church. They stayed at Pastor's house with me for a few days (where I was dog-sitting) and were a great encouragement.

July - Mrs. Radank and I worked on VBS materials and organization.

August - VBS was great fun. Our theme was Mission Possible (a spy theme that uses the wordless book). It went great! The children worked hard to bring visitors and we had a good crowd. This year we had VBS on each Sunday in August. Praise the Lord for faithful church workers who volunteered to work the VBS.

September - We started our „Patch the Pirate Club“ up again after the summer break and really enjoy the new way we run things. We don't have enough mid-week service kids to have the Pee Wee Club, so we have combined both groups into my room. The kids are really working hard and making the club a great success! I also bought gold and silver coins to use as prizes each week with which they can purchase candy or toys, or, if they want, to save for bigger items. We started a new Baptist Distinctive series in Children's Church this month. Many of the children in Children's Church are well grounded in the Bible and so I made a power point presentation of the Baptist distinctives using the acrostic BAPTISTS. The children enjoyed the series, as did I.

October - We have a new missionary in Germany as of October 29, 2010. Pastor Radank's son Bob, wife Kelly, and son Jackson are finally here. This has been an exciting time for Pastor and Mrs. Radank. They are missionaries to the German people and will be working primarily with Keith and Julia Klaus at Freie Baptisten Gemeinde. Our Harvest Fest also went well. The children came dressed up in Bible character costumes and we all had a blast. We had a beheaded Paul and Herodias' daughter Salome. They won the Bible character costume contest.

Prayer Requests - The completion of our building. My mother, Diana Kendrick has been in the hospital in ICU twice this year with complications with her liver. The servicemen and their families. New missionaries, Bob, Kelly and Jackson Radank. The salvation of souls.

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you.
