Ministering to the military in Germany

Dear Praying Churches and Families,
Grüß Gott! (Hello)

April 2011

February: Thank you for praying for the Europewide Ladies Retreat. Several ladies from our church went this year and the conference was a great blessing. Mina Oglesby was the guest speaker, and she did an excellent job. I know I came back refreshed and excited about the work of the Lord.

March: We are still going through "The Hall of Faith" series in children's church. It is taking a bit longer than I had anticipated, but it has been a wonderful study. We are still holding our children's church in the Bayer's living room. The children's church wing is being worked on slowly.

April: I hope you all had a great Easter Sunday! Ours was extremely busy. In addition to the regular Sunday activities, we had a missionary speaker and a baptism. I was privileged to lead a visiting child to the Lord after children's church. Praise the Lord!

Prayer Requests: Please pray for...

Meghan: that she'll continue to come to church, and that we'll be able to get her parents to attend as well.

My brother Timothy: his surgery is May 6th. They will be going through his stomach to get to the damaged areas of his back.

My mother Diana: PBC of the liver. She hasn't had to go to the hospital in a while, praise the Lord!

Our troops: the servicemen and their families.

Pastor and Mrs. Radank: Pastor of Hohenfels Baptist Church.

The Robinson family: they are leaving us in June.

We will need a song leader, 3 nursery workers, and a Toddler Church teacher after the Robinsons' leave.

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you.
